

ASSOCIATION OF PHARMACEUTICAL TEACHERS OF INDIA (APTI)

APTI AWARDS 2005

The Association of Pharmaceutical teachers of India was established in 1966, by leading personalities like Prof. M.L. Schroff, Prof. G.P. Srivastava and others of Pharmacy colleges of those days to deal with the issues related to Pharmacy education in India.

Today the association has grown by leaps and bounds, with the primary objective of the association being 'to promote better intercommunication and excellence in pharmacy education' among pharmacy teachers, educators and those who are genuinely concerned with the promotion of pharmacy education and practice of pharmacy in India. Currently, the association boasts of about 2,000 life members representing every nook and corner of the country and there is a congregation of all the life members annually during the occasion of national convention deliberating on the critical issues of education, research and community health programmes.

The association in its effort to encourage the promotion of excellence and practice of pharmacy research and recognize outstanding contributions among its life members serving in various positions of education, research and administration, has instituted several awards with the help of certain patrons who have generously contributed to the cause of profession. These awards are given away to the awardees during the APTI Annual national/ international convention and Indian Pharmaceutical Congress held every year.

KLE society in association with APTI has instituted an award, which is presented as Oration award to a speaker during the annual convention. Every year, APTI calls for the applications on prescribed format, from its life members for the awards. The applications are screened by a jury appointed for the purpose by APTI. The winner of the award is decided based on the recommendations of the jury.

Applications for Pharmacy teacher of the year 2005, Young Pharmacy teacher of the year 2005 and nominations for Principal of the Year 2005, Life time achievement award 2005 and Prof. G. P. Srivastava Memorial Award, 2005 are invited by APTI.

The applications/ nomination forms with relevant testimonials and photographs should be sent within the prescribed date of 16th August 2005 to,

Prof. B. G. Shivananda,

Secretary - APTI,

H.Q. : Al-Ameen College of Pharmacy,

Hosur Road, Bangalore - 560 027.
